Get in the Game

If you would like to get off the sideline and into the game there are many men meeting all over Charleston each week. You can go through the Game Plan for Life Vol. 1 with your table host over the next several weeks, or you can get involved in another small group. On the next page you will find several groups to choose from (the date listed is the first day the group will meet):

Game Plan for Life Vol. 1

Take a tour of the Joe Gibbs Racing facility as you journey with Coach Gibbs through a six-week experience designed to help you win in the game of life. Based on a national survey of 700 men as well as Coach's conversations with thousands of men, the Gibbs team addresses the topics that men most want and need to tackle.

The topics covered in Volume 1 are: God, the Bible, Salvation, Creation, Finances, and Sin and Addiction. And, Joe's team of experts includes full length interviews from Ken Boa, Josh McDowell, Chuck Colson, John Lennox, Ron Blue, and Ravi Zacharias.
